

ICOM Australia Awards 2024

General Information About the Awards

- The ICOM Australia Awards recognise and celebrate outstanding work undertaken by Australian individuals and institutions that has strengthened international relations and contributed to the cultural richness of museums and galleries.
- Australian museums and galleries enrich the cultural, social and intellectual lives of all Australians and contribute to well-informed, tolerant, cohesive communities. The exchange of ideas and expertise internationally is an important part of expanding these opportunities.
- ICOM Australia encourages nominations for the 2024 ICOM Australia Awards.

Guidelines

- Nominations are open to ICOM and non-ICOM members for both the individual and institution awards. Nominations must be made by ICOM Members.
- Nominations can come from industry peers or self-nominations. Current Members of the ICOM Australia Executive Board are not eligible for nomination of an individual award, however their organisations can be nominated for institutional awards.

Assessment

- An assessment panel, consisting of up to 4 members of the ICOM Australia Executive Board and one external member, will assess the individual and institution nominations received and recommend the Award recipients to the Executive Board.
- The Board has the right not to confer an Award if they believe nominations are not of sufficient quality and relevance.
- The Board's decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.

Copyright

- Copyright remains with the nominee for all entries to the Awards. By submitting a nomination, the nominator warrants that the nominee will grant ICOM Australia and the International Council of Museums a limited licence to reproduce material relating to the nominated project for the promotion of the Awards and for archival purposes.

Awards Ceremony

- To be presented at the AmaGA National Conference 17 – 20 September 2024.
- ICOM Australia may contribute to attendance costs at the ceremony if practical

Nomination submission

- Completed nomination form
- Supplementary material (maximum 5 pages)
- Submit via e-mail to info@icom.org.au

Nominations are due by COB 30 June 2024

Further enquiries

Contact the ICOM Australia Awards Committee at info@icom.org.au