

Institution Award

About the award

- For outstanding contribution to international engagement in museums and galleries
- Recognises outstanding institutional achievement in project work leading to significant international engagement and inspirational contribution to Australian cultural life.
- Projects or initiatives can be from any area of museum and gallery practice
- Open to museums and galleries (or partner organisations including educational institutions or non-government organisations). Teams within organisations can be recognised by this award
- Must be nominated by a current financial ICOM member

Nominees will need to demonstrate:

- Excellence in a particular museum/gallery project or body of work
- Strengthened international relations between institutions
- Promoted collaboration between institutions
- Contributed significantly to the evolving role of museums and galleries

All nominations must be submitted via e-mail to info@icom.org.au by COB 31 July 2025

NOMINATION DETAILS

Nominator: _____

Nominator ICOM Membership Number: _____

Nominator's Institution (if relevant): _____

How did you find out about the ICOM awards: _____

Date: _____

Nominee (Institution): _____

Name / Positions (if relevant to project/team): _____

Contact email: _____

Contact phone: _____

Please answer all following questions

1. Summary of Nominee's intent and outcome of international projects or initiatives (150 words max)

2. Demonstration excellence in museum/gallery project contributing to international engagement (300 words)

3. Evidence of strengthened international relations between institutions (300 words)

4. Evidence of collaboration between institutions (300 words)

5. Significant contribution to the evolving role of museums and galleries (300 words)

6. Supplementary material

List of Relevant URLs

Can attach up to 5 pages maximum of supplementary material to nomination